The year is flying by and I can't quite believe the next Club show will be the big 50th Anniversary Championship Show. This is the last chance to book accommodation at the hotel as our block booking will end soon and I know the rest of the hotel is fully booked now. Gala dinner bookings and payments need to be received to the secretary by 18th August. Another reminder for all that if you wish to update your judging CV it needs to be with the secretary by 31st August. The same goes if you wish to be considered for the Club judging list, applications again in by 31st August. Next week is the Lowchen World Congress held in Amsterdam, which should be a very interesting time and chance for Lowchen enthusiasts from all around the world to meet and share their thoughts, so will report on that event when I get back. There are 24 entered at Welsh Kennel Club for judge Martin Freeman. Entries close for Darlington on 14th August and Driffield on 28th August. Safe travels and good luck for anyone going to the World Dog Show and the Lowchen Congress. Don't forget to let me have your news and views and information on any open shows with Lowchen classes.
