In light of recent theft of a dog at a dog show it got me thinking if that happened to me or indeed they managed to escape. We all know our dogs are microchipped but no use if the chip details and the contact number for Petlog are at home as you need to contact them immediately it happens. Probably most of you have thought about it but I have now got all my dogs details and contact numbers on a card that I will carry with me in future and the numbers stored in my phone. Next Show is Bath good luck and safe journeys to all travelling there particularly as it's on Bank Holiday Monday judge Stuart Payne has an entry of 25 and Lowchen are to be judged in ring 3 and are third in the ring.

There are 19 Lowchen entered for Southern Counties and 19 at Three Counties

Don't forget to let me have your news and details of any forthcoming open shows and results.
