

Breed Notes 04/09/2019
Lowchen (Little Lion Dog)

At City Of Birmingham judge Roger Ward (Warwell) awarding CC's for the first time in the breed awarded BCC & BOB & BP to Broevans The Fun Of It All, her second, bred and owned by Steve Brown (Ch Jadechar Pride Of The Hero JW X Ch Tethall Let Us Have Fun) DCC was awarded to Brokus Double Or Nothing At Glondino owned by Jackie Hillyer and bred by Sue Broadbridge (Teejay High Roler At Brokus x Fredachris China Doll At Brokus) RBCC was awarded to Bigglesmere All Cried Out owned and bred by Peter Scarth & Michael Gaunt (Bigglesmere Duets For One x Bigglesmere Nina Simone) RDCC was awarded to Jadechar Flashback Hero owned and bred by Mary & Jade Pascoe (Ch Broevans Legend Of The Hero x Jadechar Divine Diva) BV was awarded to Bundu Callipygian owned and bred by Alison Bush (Ch Rishkhans Kellys Hero At Shazzabars x Cleevview Blanche Noir Avec Bundu) The Schedule is now out and on the Club website for the Club Championship Show to be held on 9th November at Thorpe Willoughby, judge Alan Bendelow (Casarow/Kimbering) entries close on 19th October.

The Club is holding a Seminar and Judging Examination on Sunday 20th October in Stafford, full details and application forms can be found on the Club website. At going to print there are a couple of places left for the examination if you are interested please contact the Secretary asap.

Next Championship Show is Darlington where there are tickets this year, judge Margaret Boulcott (Ingerdorm) there are 24 Lowchen entered. Entries coming close to closing for South Wales and LKA entries close on 21st October. Hyde & District Canine Association have Lowchen classes at their open show to be held in Stockport on 17th November judge Hayley McCallum (Pandaprints) entries close 19th October. The year just seems to have disappeared. Please let me know any news or results you have.

www.thelowchenclub.co.uk

Mary Pascoe

celebrationspas@btinternet.com